8th March 2024

Dear Parents/Carers,

Wow! What a wonderful turnout for World Book Day, the costumes looked fantastic and the childrens enthusiasm was absolutely amazing. Lawrence Prestige, a childrens author visited the school yesterday, he read one of his books in assembly and worked with our year 6 children creating characters. Each class studied a different author for the day and the children were involved in lots of exciting activities. Please see Google Classroom for individual class pictures and other pictures at the end of this newsletter.

As part of our World Book Day celebrations, we held an extreme reading competition this week, whereby we requested photos of the children reading books in extreme places. We had some fantastic entries and the winner will be announced in assembly on Monday. Thank you for all those who took part.

As part of their town and country topic, Year 2 visited Berkswell to learn all about village life. The children were fantastic and had a lovely time.

Have a lovely weekend.
